

Creating Impact

A development initiative for emerging cultural leaders

Are you an arts practitioner 30 years of age or under?
Do you initiate ideas, create opportunities and successfully run arts projects in your local community?

Join us and explore your leadership potential!

This two-day program will provide you with a unique opportunity to:

- Map your personal strengths and leadership capacities;
- Discover different leadership models and styles;
- Discuss practical strategies around creating impact;
- Enhance your skills in group facilitation, decision making, planning and idea generation; and
- Extend the reach of your projects within and beyond your local community.

Facilitated by Mark Creyton, Manager Education, Policy and Research, Volunteering Qld, and Caro Jende, Marketing Manager, Youth Arts Queensland.

Venue: Metro Arts, 109 Edwards Street, Brisbane

Date: Saturday, 13 and Sunday, 14 November 2010

Time: 9am – 4pm

Cost: $50 ($40 for YAQ members)

Expressions of interest now available at www.yaq.org.au

EOI deadline: 5pm Friday, 1 October 2010

For more information, contact Youth Arts Queensland on (07) 3252 5115 or info@yaq.org.au

Creating Impact is a new Youth Arts Queensland initiative developed in partnership with Volunteering Qld.

YAQ and its programs, receive financial assistance from the Queensland Government through Arts Queensland and the Department of Employment, Economic Development and Innovation's Skilling Queenslanders for Work initiative. YAQ receives additional support from the Australia Council for the Arts, the Australian Government's arts funding and advisory body, through the Opportunities for Young and Emerging Artist initiative for JUMP, the national mentoring program for young and emerging artists.

